

CVS NOW ACCEPTING EXPIRED AND UNUSED MEDICATIONS FOR RECYCLING

According to the Waste Business Journal, CVS pharmacies have announced that all of its locations are now offering the Sharps Compliance Inc. medication disposal system. The system offers customers the opportunity to get rid of expired and unused prescriptions or over the counter medications. Controlled substances are not included in this program.

Customers can purchase the postage paid envelopes for $3.99 each and mail their unwanted medications to the Sharp Compliance facility in Texas for disposal.
